

Preparing for an F-1 Visa Interview

This information is for students who plan to enter the United States for the first time to study. For information on bringing dependents to the U.S., returning to continue studies, or renewing your visa, or for more details on how to apply for a student visa, refer to the Student Exchange Visitor Program at HIU and U.S. Department of State.

Steps

1. Apply and be accepted to one of our degree granting programs. You will receive an acceptance letter from the Admissions Office.
2. A P/DSO from HIU will reach out to you about issuing you an I-20. You will need to provide financial documentation that equals or exceeds the cost of attendance and a copy of your biographic passport page.
3. Contact your local U.S. Consulate or Embassy to ask about how to get an F-1 international student visa.
4. After you receive an I-20 form from Hartford International, follow the U.S. Embassy/Consulate's instructions to schedule an interview for your F-1 student visa. It is important to apply for your student visa as far in advance as possible. Many consulates recommend that appointments be made no more than 90 days from the intended date of travel, but some can make earlier arrangements for interviews.
5. Complete the DS-160 Form online and pay the visa application fee by following instructions on your local U.S. Embassy's or Consulate's website.
6. Pay the $350 SEVIS fee, if applicable. HIU pays this fee for all MAP admitted students.
