INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FINANCIAL GUARANTEE FORM

The United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS) regulations require documentation that sufficient financial resources are available to meet a student’s prospective educational and living expenses while in the U.S. Therefore, Hartford International University requires a guarantee of financial resources from each applicant who expects to obtain or maintain F-1 student status.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW:

All financial documentation submitted must meet the below requirements:

- Issued on official letterhead.
- Most recent at the time of submission.
- The funds presented cover the total cost of attendance for the HIU program, including tuition, living expenses, health insurance, and related fees for either 12 months or the program’s duration (e.g., for a 9-month program, only provide financial evidence for 9 months).
- Ensure all documents are clear and concise, listing the student’s or account holder(s) name and in English. NOTE: Some financial documentation may require a stamp for authenticity.
- Acceptable sources of funding include: checking and savings account bank statements with a current balance, approved loan documents, and scholarships.
