

CONSORTIUM CROSS-REGISTRATION PRE-APPROVAL FORM

Via cross-registration agreements with the Boston Theological Interreligious Consortium (BTI), Gratz College, and the Center for Chaplaincy Studies HIU degree program students have the opportunity to take select courses at member institutions. In addition to submitting this form, students registering for a course with the BTI will need to register via the BTI Cross-Registration Portal to complete their registration. Students are responsible for adhering to all host school policies and deadlines. All cross-registration requests are subject to the approval of the Host School.

Financial Aid:

Consortium courses that satisfy degree program requirements can be counted as part of your enrollment level for financial aid eligibility purposes (half-time, full-time, etc.). Your financial aid package may be adjusted accordingly. Consortium classes are subject to prevailing HIU policies governing financial aid eligibility and academic standing (min. GPA, SAP, etc.).
